

December 7, 2008

Subject: Letter of Reference for Dr. Tom Gill

To whom it may concern,

This letter is a personal recommendation written for Dr. Tom Gill whom I have known for the past 12 years. In his role as Vice President of Sales and Marketing, Dr. Gill served with distinction as my chief lieutenant and trusted business advisor for the past two years. He is without question one of the hardest working and most conscientious people with whom I have ever worked. Not only is he an accomplished author and writer, he is a superb technician and has a deep grasp of all aspects of networking and Internet technology.

It has been my extreme pleasure to work closely with Tom on many projects over the years. He developed and implemented many marketing strategies that were the deciding difference in our company's success. Dr. Gill also served as primary contact and support liaison with one of our largest clients, supporting both their local network infrastructure and their entire website, implementing many new components.

Tom's skills with people are also worthy of mentioning. His upbeat personality and genuine care and concern for other people always shines through. He was extremely well liked by all of our employees and customers.

Dr. Gill is indeed a no end to the work day individual and there is no job, large or small, in the computer industry that Tom cannot handle. I heartily give him my highest recommendation. If you have any questions or would like to talk with me personally, my direct cell phone is: (321) 439-9690.

Very Sincerely,

William C. Harris
President